Thomas Preston Peardon retires officially in June of 1965 after 42 years at Barnard. During this time he has served the College as Dean of the Faculty and as chairman of the curriculum committee which was largely responsible for our present course of study. Although he began his career as a teacher of history, he joined the Government Department in its embryonic stages and was its chairman for twenty-two years.

Professor Peardon's long career has been in the best tradition of the scholar-teacher. An impressive lecturer, he has left the indelible impression of his great wit and perspicacity upon his students. A much published scholar, he has made a permanent contribution to the fields of history and government as both author and editor. A respected person, he has shown an understanding of the Barnard student which is, in part, a result of his marriage to a Barnard alumna, but is also the product of his interested and careful observation of those around him.

We salute Professor Thomas Peardon, a scholar and a gentleman, who has for so many years taken his hat off to us as we passed by. To him we dedicate this yearbook.

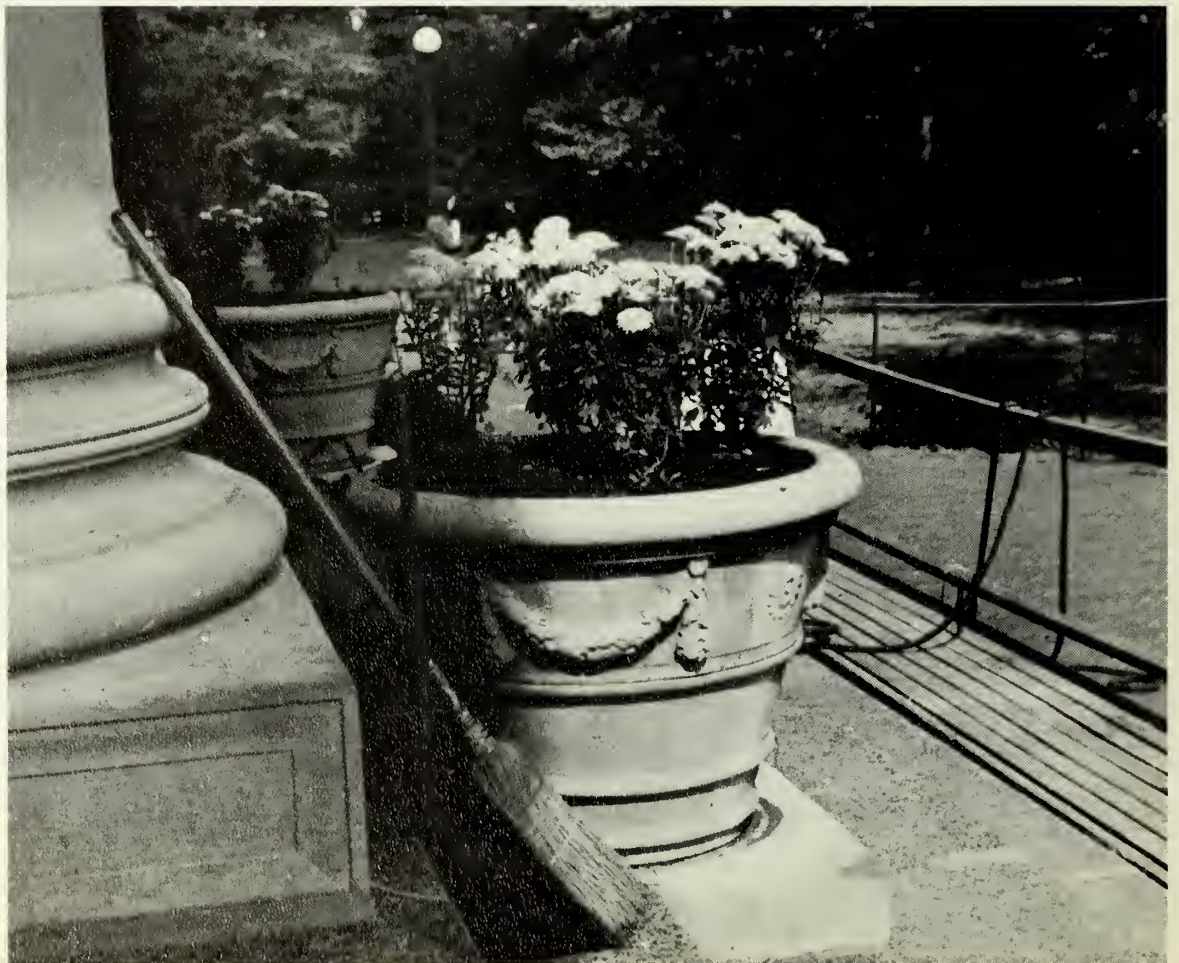

The Squirrel's Tale

They're back.

It's September and the campus is returning to life.

There are forms to fill out, lines to stand on,

Dean Boorse, President Park and Sue Silverman display the Mayor's Proclamation designating October as Barnard Month.

I got my job through the New York Times.

battles in the bookstores, and more lines to stand on.

Why, oh why, oh why, oh why did I ever leave Ohio?

616 is finally ready, or almost,

Fifth floor—housewares, notions, ladies' lingerie.

*and the girls are moving in,
ready or not.*

*Though rather weak in the acorn department,
the dorm abounds in pumpkins, and turkeys for festive occasions.*

The lively ones read the New York Times.

"Some books are to be tasted, other to be swallowed,
and some few to be chewed and digested."

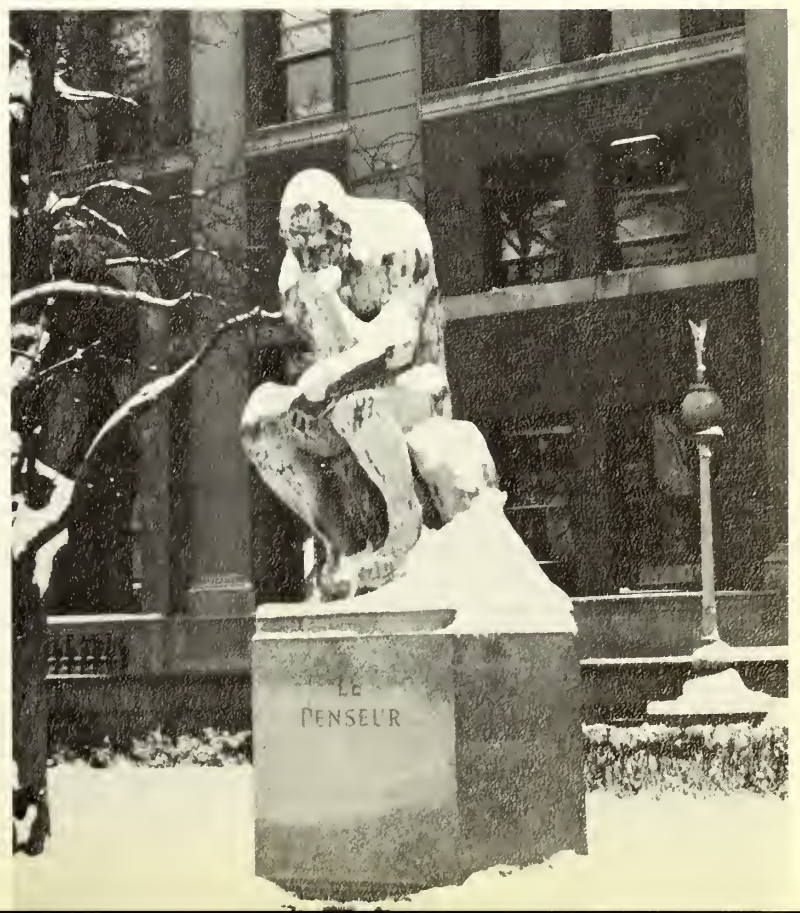

Winter is a difficult time for me,

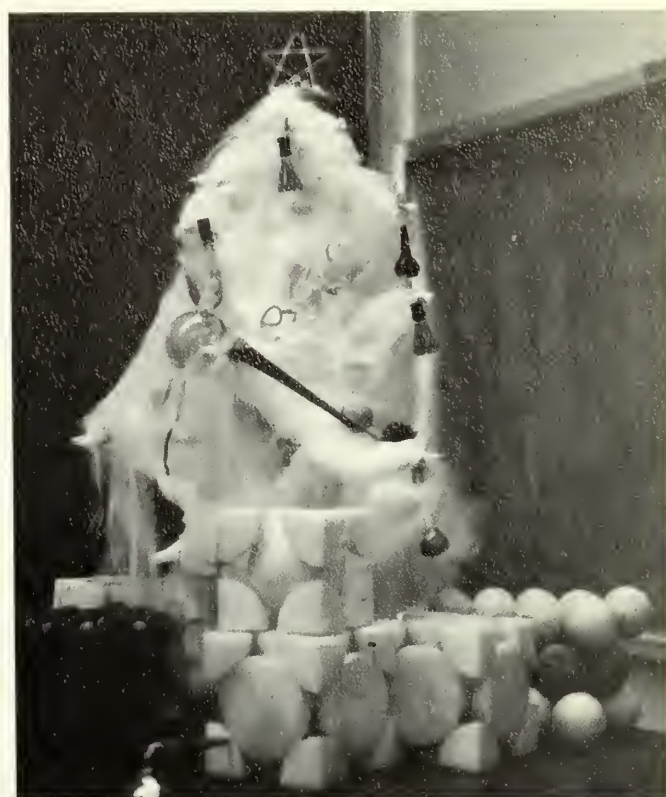

J'ai froid, donc je suis.

Drama

John LeVert and Sally St. John

It is Spring, moonless night in the small town, starless and bible-black, the cobblestreets silent and the hunched, courtiers'-and-rabbits' wood limping invisible down to the sloeblack, slow, black, crowblack, fishingboat-bobbing sea.

—Dylan Thomas
Under Milk Wood

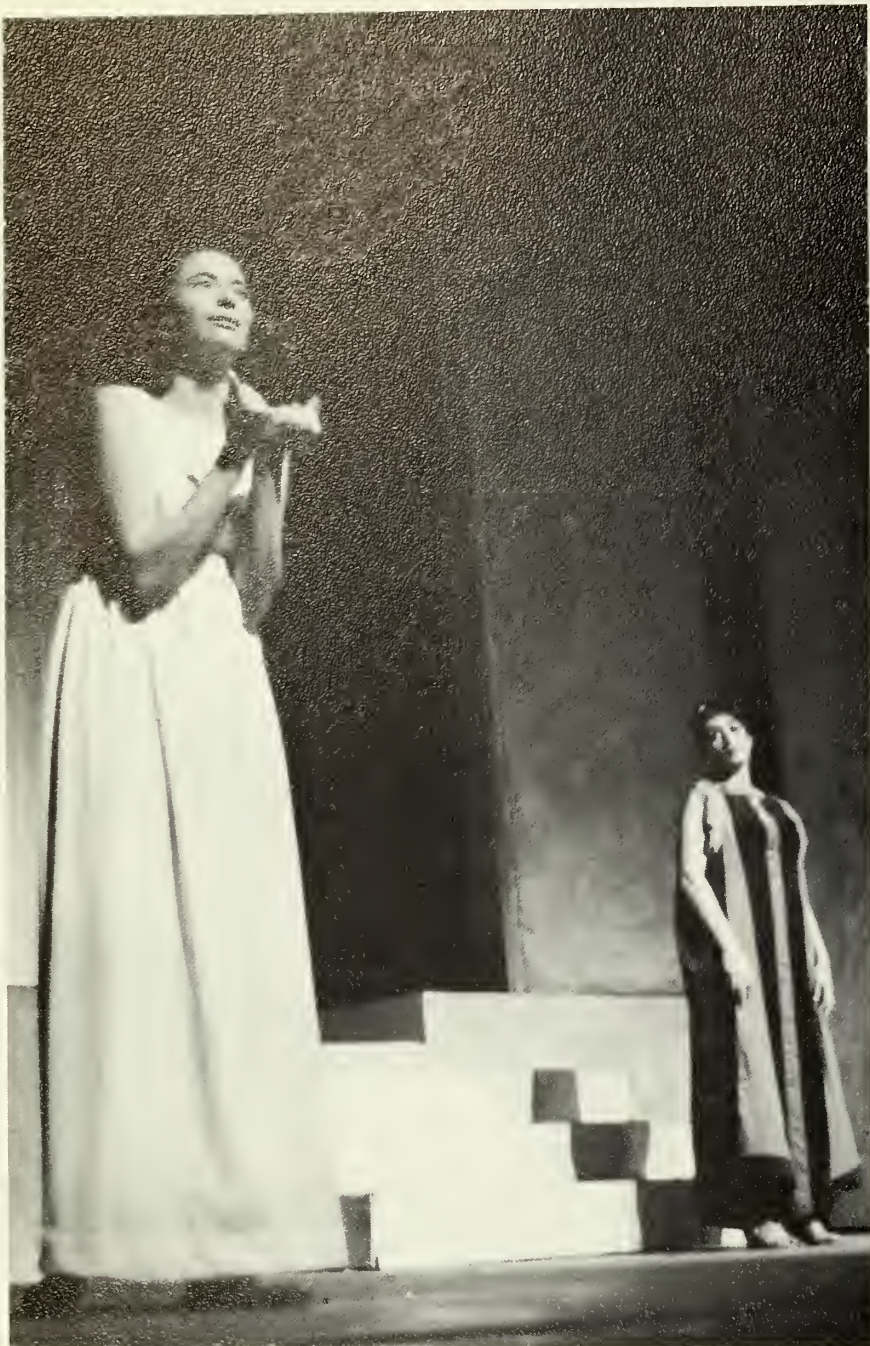

Naomi Achs, Stephanie Zellermeier, Elaine Parker, Richard Levenson, Sally St. John, Anne Holmes

Oh, isn't life a terrible thing, thank God?

Teresa Naugel, Edwina Cruise, Linda Rein

Annette Oliver as Electra and Rokki Knee as Clytemnestra.

Why does life flow by calmly, smoothly in one group, with the living forgetting the dead and getting along with one another, whereas in the other group it's hell?—It's simply that in the second there's a woman who can't let well enough alone.

—Jean Giraudoux
Electra

Orestes (John Davis) is taunted by Fury Susan Kornzweig . . .

. . . and tempted by Electra.

Joan O'Brian, Lucy Salinger, Carole Caminiti, Barbara Oka, Alberta Handelman

Twenty love-sick maidens we,
 Love-sick all against our will,
 Twenty years hence we shall be Twenty love-sick maidens still.

Greek Games

Sophomores and freshmen pit their skills against one another in discus throw for form, hurdling for form, hoop rolling for speed and chariot racing for form. Each class is provided with a chariot designed by the class Property Committee and drawn by four girls of equal height who act as horses. These are led in competitive routine by a charioteer who commands in Greek.

Shouts of Nike may be heard resounding through the gymnasium.

I take it as axiomatic that education requires the association of an older and younger generation in some form so that the knowledge, the aspiration, the experience of the prior ages can be made available to the new generation for formal examination at least, if not for complete acceptance or rejection.

Over thirteen thousand members of the Associate Alumnae of Barnard College

welcome 1965, the newest class to join the Association.

All students of Barnard College become members of the AABC on graduation. There are no dues and many privileges in being a member of the Association. To mention a few—the Alumnae Magazine will be sent to each member four times during a year. Many Barnard classes are open to you for auditing. The services of the Placement Office are available. In the fall watch for your copy of the Alumnae handbook for complete information on what the Alumnae Association can mean to you.

FOR THE BEST TEMPORARY JOBS

WE ARE DELIGHTED . . .

to salute the Barnard girls who have handled our temporary job assignments so well over the years.

Students, teachers and school clerks find it pleasant and profitable to work through our Service during long or short vacations, and we look forward to seeing many new applicants this summer. Mothers and older sisters, too, can use their spare time to advantage doing temporary work. There are no fees to applicants.

WE SUPPLY QUALIFIED OFFICE WORKERS TO NEW YORK'S FINEST COMPANIES

Secretaries, Stenographers, Typists, Clerks Dictaphone Operators, Receptionists Bookkeepers, Switchboard Operators, Etc.
